Certificate Schedule

The point(s) at which fish and fish products may enter a Chain of Custody:

Lobster (Homarus gammarus) caught by commercial fishermen licensed by the States of Jersey Department of Planning and Environment with pots in the Granville Bay Treaty area and associated Basse Normandy and Jersey territorial waters and equipped with MSC labelled elastic claw bands are eligible to enter further chain of custody.

On the basis that the MSC-labelled elastic claw bands are considered consumer-ready tamper-proof packaging, CoC certification is not required for organisations trading or handling these products¹ (see MSC Chain of Custody Certification Requirements v2.0).

Until the Jersey side undergoes a similar process as Normandy to develop a band that meets Consumer Ready Tamper Proof Packaging (CRTTP) criteria, MSC does not consider the Jersey products to be CRTTP. As a result, companies handling the Jersey product would be required to get CoC certified and are otherwise ineligible to enter certified chains of custody.

Lobsters sold though the Halles à Marée are eligible to bear the MSC ecolabel. Separate Chain of Custody would be required after the first change in ownership. The addresses of the two Halles à marée are given below (note that invoicing is carried out by these same parties):

- Halles à Marée, Quai Ouest, 50400 GRANVILLE
- Centre de Marée, Bassin du Commerce, 50100 CHERBOURG EN COTENTIN

Lobsters sold to fish merchants ("mareyeurs") directly would have to either carry a special MSC labelled claw band or be subject to separate CoC certification. In this case, CoC would start at the point of landing.

¹ except in the case that any supply chain company down the line were to remove the bands to make anything else and sell it with the ecolabel (e.g. a restaurant, or a supermarket selling lobster sandwiches). In this case, these companies would require CoC.
